

IÑIGO SÁENZ DE MIERA

Member of the Board of Directors of the Spanish Association of Foundations and of the Social Council of the University of Cantabria.

Bachelor of Sociology by the Complutense University of Madrid and graduated in Social Science at the University of Kent (UK), where he also studied a Master's Degree in Political Sociology. Íñigo also holds a Harvard University degree in Environmental Science and the Stanford Executive Program (SEP) of Stanford University Graduate School of Business.

He was a teacher at Francisco de Vitoria University (UFV) of Madrid and a postgraduate teacher at San Pablo CEU University and at the Bar Association of Madrid. Before being appointed General Manager of the Botín Foundation, he was General Manager at Francisco de Vitoria University.

Between 2006 and 2008 he managed the Integer Group in Spain; Integer is an educational group with more than 15 private and semi-private centres around the whole country and more than 1,500 employees.

In 2002 he kick-starts the LIDER Scholarships Programme of the Carolina Foundation and Banco Santander, one of the most prestigious scholarships programmes in Latin America, which he codirected during six years with former president Andrés Pastrana.

He began his professional life at the Iuve Foundation, where he held different positions and chaired between 1997 and 2000. At Iuve, he had the opportunity to set in motion, in collaboration with public and private institutions, several ground-breaking projects in areas like leadership development, voluntary work and development cooperation.