

Fundación Botín Art Grants

2024/2025 • 31st Edition

GRANTS AWARDED FOR STUDY, INDIVIDUAL PROJECTS AND RESEARCH

Bases

- Fundación Botín announces its new call for applications to award 6 Art Grants meant to support individual art projects that may consist of training (academic or not), research (non academic), and production. Artists of any nationality may apply. One of these grants will be reserved in priority for a Spanish artists or residents at least five years prior to the application to this grant, under the age of 30, who have a concrete project of relocating abroad to carry out their project (training, research and production).
- Grants are direct, indivisible and non-transferable. They cannot be used for any other purpose than the carrying out of the project outlined in the grant application.
- This grant is not compatible with other institutional funds for the same concept.

1. DURATION

- Grants are given to cover a period of nine months.

2. ENDOWMENT

- The total amount of the grant is € 23,000.
- Grant money can be used for living expenses, travel, equipment and studio rentals, and any other related production cost related with the project.
- Travel insurance will be provided to grantees relocating to another country during the course of the grant period.
- Spanish income tax law is applicable.
- Payment schedule: 45% at the beginning of the grant period; 25% at the end of the first trimester; 25% at the end of the second trimester; 5% paid upon the remittance of a final report.

3. TERMS

- The grant is valid for the grant period only. It cannot be interrupted, and the grant period must start before the end of 2024.
- Grantees will be notified in writing once their application has been approved. They must confirm in writing that they accept the grant before any payment can be made.

4. LIABILITY

- Grantees must credit Fundación Botín in any communication, publication, or public program related to the granted project.
- Should the grantee decide to produce a publication related to the granted project, Fundación Botín reserves the right of first refusal to publish it; in the event Fundación decides to waive this right, the grantee will need to credit Fundación Botín as the funder of the related project.
- During the course of the grant period, Fundación Botín reserves the right to assess the progress and development of the granted project.
- The artist agrees to send Fundación Botín a report which, referring to the aims outlined in the application, provides a final evaluation of the project and outlines the way the grant has been used, together with visual documentation of the works executed (deadline: November 14th, 2025). This will conclude the grant cycle and is the condition to execute the final payment of the grant (5% of the total amount).
- The Programme of Fundación Botín includes the public presentation at Centro Botín, for the first time, of the works produced over the grant period. Grantees are requested to facilitate to Fundación Botín the loan of works to be exhibited as well as instructions to present the work, and all the documentation that may be required. They must also agree to not present this project in any show organized in the region of Cantabria before this exhibition takes place.
- This presentation will take place in the exhibition space. Other spaces more suitable for performance, participatory activities, film, etc. may also be considered. Centro Botín will recommend the most convenient formats in conversation with the artists.
- Fundación Botín's Art Advisory Committee may elect to acquire work by the grantees. Such acquisition may occur during or after the exhibition, having Fundación Botín priority in the purchase of the work carried out with this grant. It is expected that the acquisition price takes into consideration the financial support Fundación Botín has provided to the grantee.
- Failure to comply with the rules outlined here may result in Fundación Botín taking action as it sees fit.
